CONTROLLER: the data controller determines the purposes for which and the means by which personal data is processed. So, if your company/organisation decides 'why' and 'how' the personal data should be processed it is the data controller.

PROCESSOR: the data processor processes personal data only on behalf of the controller. The data processor is usually a third party external to the company.

Please note that you can act in both capacities.

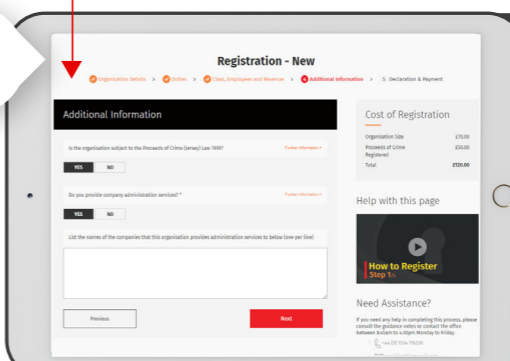

5

Class, employees & revenue

TIP The number of employees and revenue fields only appear if you select none of the above from classes of processing. If you pick one of the first 5 classes of processing you may inadvertently be fast tracked to check out ... check if you have selected the correct class of processing.
